Chairman Carlos Beruff Announces Updates to the CRC Website Floridians can now submit proposed constitutional amendments and comments through flcrc.gov

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Chairman Carlos Beruff today announced key updates to the official Constitution Revision Commission (CRC) website: flcrc.gov.

Chairman Beruff, said, “When Governor Rick Scott appointed me as Chairman of the CRC, one of my top priorities was to develop a website that allows all Floridians to participate and have a voice in this historic process. The official CRC website, flcrc.gov, now allows users to submit comments and proposed constitutional amendments online. Visitors can also view information on all scheduled public hearings and meetings and add them to their personal calendars.”

CRC IMAGE: flcrc.gov now offers interactive features allowing Floridians to submit comments and proposed constitutional amendments.

Floridians who would like to submit a comment, idea or proposed constitutional amendment to the CRC can now follow these simple steps:

How to Submit a Comment or Idea

ABOUT THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION REVISION COMMISSION (CRC)

Once every twenty years, Florida's Constitution provides for the creation of a thirty-seven member revision commission for the purpose of reviewing Florida's Constitution and proposing changes for voter consideration. The Constitution Revision Commission (CRC) meets for approximately one year, traveling the State of Florida, identifying issues, performing research, and possibly recommending changes to the Constitution. Any amendments proposed by the CRC would be placed on the 2018 General Election ballot. For additional information, visit flcrc.gov.
