Constitution Revision Commission Postpones June 22 Public Hearing in Central Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Constitution Revision Commission today announced that a public hearing tentatively scheduled for June 22nd in Central Florida has been postponed due to scheduling conflicts. The public hearing will be rescheduled for a future date.

Chairman Carlos Beruff, said, “We are actively working to reschedule this public hearing for a future date. I believe it is important that we schedule public hearings on dates which allow a majority of Commissioners to attend, especially considering that hundreds of Floridians take time out of their personal schedules to have the opportunity to speak before a full Commission.”

The Constitution Revision Commission will announce future public hearing dates and locations as soon as possible. All public hearings and meetings are noticed on the official CRC website, flcrc.gov. To watch previous public hearings and meetings held by the CRC, visit the Florida Channel’s website which has a page dedicated to all CRC public hearings and meetings.

ABOUT THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION REVISION COMMISSION (CRC)

Once every twenty years, Florida's Constitution provides for the creation of a thirty-seven member revision commission for the purpose of reviewing Florida's Constitution and proposing changes for voter consideration. The Constitution Revision Commission (CRC) meets for approximately one year, traveling the State of Florida, identifying issues, performing research and possibly recommending changes to the Constitution. Any amendments proposed by the CRC would be placed on the 2018 General Election ballot. For additional information, visit flcrc.gov. Follow the CRC on Twitter (@FloridaCRC) and Instagram (@FloridaCRC).
