CRC Chairman Carlos Beruff Announces Committee Assignments

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Chairman Carlos Beruff today announced committee assignments for the 2017-2018 Constitution Revision Commission (CRC). According to the Rules of the Commission, the CRC consists of 10 standing substantive committees and two standing procedural committees.

Chairman Carlos Beruff, said, “I am excited to announce committee assignments for the CRC, including the appointment of chairs and vice chairs for each committee. Establishing committees for the CRC means we can move forward on developing proposals that will benefit Florida families, businesses and students. Each Commissioner brings a unique set of talents and experience to this process. Committee assignments are based on preferences expressed by individual Commissioners while also ensuring each committee consists of a group of Commissioners with diverse backgrounds and complementary strengths.”

Committee assignments, including the chairs and vice chairs of each committee, are outlined below. The CRC committee meeting schedule will be developed by the Rules and Administration Committee at a future date. All committee meetings will be publicly noticed in advance and posted on flcrc.gov.

ABOUT THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION REVISION COMMISSION (CRC)

Once every twenty years, Florida's Constitution provides for the creation of a thirty-seven member revision commission for the purpose of reviewing Florida's Constitution and proposing changes for voter consideration. The Constitution Revision Commission (CRC) meets for approximately one year, traveling the State of Florida, identifying issues, performing research and possibly recommending changes to the Constitution. Any amendments proposed by the CRC would be placed on the 2018 General Election ballot. For additional information, visit flcrc.gov.
