CRC Cancels Rules and Administration Committee Meeting

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Constitution Revision Commission (CRC) Rules and Administration Committee today announced the cancellation of its meeting previously scheduled for Friday, September 8. The cancellation was announced due to current reports that Hurricane Irma may impact Florida.

Upcoming committee meetings will be announced and noticed on flcrc.gov at a future date. All CRC committee meetings are open to the public and will be livestreamed by The Florida Channel on www.TheFloridaChannel.org. Members of the public wishing to address CRC committees will be provided an opportunity to speak at the direction of the respective committee chair. Visit flcrc.gov/Committees for additional information on CRC committees.

ABOUT THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION REVISION COMMISSION (CRC)

Once every twenty years, Florida's Constitution provides for the creation of a thirty-seven member revision commission for the purpose of reviewing Florida's Constitution and proposing changes for voter consideration. The Constitution Revision Commission (CRC) meets for approximately one year, traveling the State of Florida, identifying issues, performing research and possibly recommending changes to the Constitution. Any amendments proposed by the CRC would be placed on the 2018 General Election ballot. For additional information, visit flcrc.gov. Follow the CRC on Twitter (@FloridaCRC) and Instagram (@FloridaCRC).
